

CAREER DEVELOPMENT PRACTITIONER ETHICS TRAINING

Champion your agency in the advancement of ethical guidelines and practice.

Ethics training is designed to help career development practitioners and management understand, and more effectively deal with, the competing interests in any ethical issue or dilemmas. The training will help establish open communications amongst staff, clients, and management by providing transparency through accepted guidelines.

The training provides direction and a shared ethical vocabulary for counsellors, job developers, and other career development practitioners when deciding how to deal with ethical dilemmas and issues.

AREAS OF FOCUS INCLUDE:

- Primary Responsibility
- Confidentiality
- Informed Consent
- Referrals
- Use of Tests
- Computer & Technology Use
- Professional Standards

COST: $300 PER PARTICIPANT

(members save 10%)

INCLUDES:

- advance reading materials
- delivery of 1-day, face-to-face, on-site training
- course handouts
- test materials
- grading
- final certificates for successful participants

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

(416) 767-1679
admin@onestep.on.ca

This training meets the requirements for certification by the:

Career Development Practitioners' Certification Board of Ontario.

